I have found it timely, illuminating, guiding and valuable for my own research...a book I wouldn't hesitate recommending to my students for personal use

Journal of Neonatal Nursing

...a remarkable contribution to the qualitative research literature...this is indeed a 'must have' book and should be placed on the reading lists of courses at all levels of nursing education... students of nursing and professions allied to medicine would find much in it to justify personal purchase

Journal of Advanced Nursing

...an introductory and informative text about qualitative research...The overview is appropriate and well balanced with examples specifically addressed to nursing situations and nurses' issues

Health and Social Care in the Community

This book should become a standard text..It covers a lot of ground and it does so in an engaging non-patronising way. It is indispensable for those embarking on qualitative research and indispensable for veterans

Nursing Times Research
