We Are the Disclosure - Part II: 700 Years of Research on ET-Human Interaction By Miguel Mendonça

Since the late 1940s, a growing number of individuals and groups have sought public disclosure of what the authorities know about interaction between humans and non-human intelligences. But for 70 years those authorities have employed various tactics to keep the subject secret, and to confuse perceptions of any information that does reach the public. But as people worldwide continue to experience various contact phenomena, the responsibility of researching and reporting this has fallen to those called in various ways to participate. We Are the Disclosure is an embodiment of this bottom-up Disclosure process. Through in-depth interviews, this book provides a people's history of the development of the field since the early days, charting its evolution from a technological issue, to a political, historical, environmental and spiritual one. Leading writers and researchers in the field are joined by activists, radio hosts, therapists, a military whistleblower and a microbiologist. They discuss their contributions to the field, the implications for individuals and society, and how we can overcome the governmental suppression and bring humanity into a new era of cosmological understanding. Part II of We Are the Disclosure features interviews with Rita Louise, Jim Marrs, CristiAnne Quiros, Mary Rodwell, Derek Savory, Lee Spiegel, Leo Sprinkle, Clifford Stone, Victor Viggiani, Milton Wainwright, Alfred Lambremont Webre, Jerry Wills and Rebecca Hardcastle Wright. This book adds important depth and breadth to the discussion, and provides strong evidence that Disclosure may prove to be the most important topic of our time, and that it is being driven in large part by the ETs themselves.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Miguel Mendonça is an Anglo-Azorean author based in Bristol, England. After studying and working in forestry and horticulture, he gained an honors degree in geography and history then studied social science and environmental ethics at postgraduate level. Miguel worked in the sustainability field for six years, specializing in renewable energy policy. While serving as Research Manager for an international NGO he lectured widely and wrote textbooks, articles and papers, providing an evidence base for campaigners from NGOs, politics, finance, industry and civil society around the world to push for new or better renewable energy laws. After publishing a collection of short fiction in 2011 he began to research the ET field in depth. In 2015 he co-authored Meet the Hybrids with Barbara Lamb, a study of the lives of eight ET-human hybrids living on Earth.
