Changing the Game: How to Profit From Your Passion for Sports by a Wall Street Investment Manager By William Hall III

Now available as a Black & White paperback, Changing the Game is a must read for anyone interested in sports. Whether you are an avid sports fan, a fantasy sports fanatic, an experienced sports bettor, a weekend warrior or an investment professional, the insightful information and revolutionary score prediction methods contained in Changing the Game will open your eyes to an entirely new way of analyzing the games you love. Changing the Game shows sports fans how to make money while following their passion - reading the sports pages; listening to sports talk radio; checking sports websites; and, watching the games and highlight shows on flat screens. It strips away the misconceptions surrounding sports betting and shows the activity for what it actually is – a legitimate game of skill that provides informed fans the chance to get off the sidelines and truly experience the thrill of the game along with their favorite players and teams. Changing the Game’s innovative Get In and Win game analysis system combines the same investment principles practiced successfully for decades on Wall Street with the cutting edge sports analytics the new generation of general managers and owners, such as the Oakland Athletics’ Billy Beane (the primary real life character in Moneyball) and Mark Cuban (the owner of the NBA’s Dallas Mavericks), are using to get an edge over their competition. After reading Changing the Game, you will never view what is happening on the field or the court -- or on Wall Street -- in the same way again.
