Creating Heaven on Earth-Taking Small Steps in the Right Direction (The Future of Western Civilization Series 1 Book 8) By Nicholas Beecroft

Martin Rutte is interviewed by Psychiatrist Dr Nicholas Beecroft about his Project Heaven on Earth. Martin's present passion is Project Heaven on Earth which is a really simple but powerful approach to aligning people with their greatest purpose in service of their highest mission. The language "Heaven on Earth" made me feel quite uncomfortable because, to me, it sounds a bit naive, and embarrassingly religious. Martin knows that himself and was held back initially for the same reason. However he realized that we all feel very free to talk about "hell on earth" so we ought to be equally comfortable talking about "Heaven on Earth." The other advantage this phrase has, according to Martin, is that everyone knows exactly what you mean by "Heaven on Earth." It takes no explanation.

The Future of Western Civilization Series 1

Dr Nicholas Beecroft, a Military and Organizational Psychiatrist, has spent 25 years exploring the worlds of Medicine, Psychiatry, Business, International Relations and the Military. In the Future of Western Civilization Series, he interviews visionary leaders to discover their inspiring, positive and practical visions for the future and challenges them with incisive questions.
