Freedom's Treasure (The Baldwin Series) (Volume 1) By A.K. Lawrence

Anna Mylan can't take it anymore. She quits her job as a reporter and sells everything she owns. She moves to a rural town in Michigan for the peace and quiet to begin writing her Great American Mystery Novel. She meets a charming cast of characters and discovers secrets buried in the floor of her home. She learns that peace and quiet aren't always what they're cracked up to be. Hunter Williams is happy in his small town life. Born and raised in Baldwin, Michigan, he takes great pride in his community. When Anna stumbles, quite literally, upon a clue that may answer the oldest mystery the town has known he becomes swept up in the adventure and in Anna's eyes. When Anna is threatened after discovering the clue, Hunter must protect her. Can the couple beat an unknown adversary in a race to find a civil war treasure left behind by a runaway slave?

Editorial Review

About the Author

AK Lawrence was born and raised in Michigan. Several areas of the state hold her heart and have been inspirational. At the age of 18 AK began traveling the United States and met several engaging personalities. Over the next 20 years she continued the exploration and pushed toward her goal of writing novels that are fun, interesting and different from the usual novels picked up for romance or adventure. AK now lives in Florida, with her two furry four-legged companions and one companion of the two-legged variety.
