Storm Song By Nancy Viau

As thunder and lightning approach, a family gathers inside to play, sing, eat, and snuggle together until the weather clears. This sweet story captures both the excitement of a thunderstorm and the reassurance children need during a storm. The lively, rhythmic text mimics the storm sounds while the bold, playful art conveys this special family time.

About the Author

Nancy Viau thinks thunderstorms are fascinating (and a little scary), and she enjoys watching them from a cozy spot inside her New Jersey home. She prefers, however, to be outdoors, and on sunny days she can be found hiking and biking in the country, swimming in the ocean, or gazing up at the stars.
