Vita Sackville-West: Selected Writings By Vita Sackville-West

Aristocrat, novelist, essayist, traveler, and lover of Virginia Woolf, Vita Sackville-West lived a fascinating and daring life on the periphery of the Bloomsbury circle. She wrote in an astounding variety of genres, including travel narrative, historical and literary studies, poetry, fiction, and essays, and is probably best known for her novels, The Edwardians and All Passion Spent, and incomparable writings about English country houses and gardens. Here, for the first time, is an anthology that represents the full expanse of her interests and styles. Over half of the works, including intimate diaries and a dream notebook, have never been published. Edited by a foremost expert on the Bloomsbury circle, Vita Sackville-West: Selected Writings provides the best and most accessible introduction to this unique writer.

Bernice King:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library in order to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Vita Sackville-West: Selected Writings can make you feel more interested to read.
