Save Me By Natasha Preston

Tegan Pennells used to care about everything: family, friends, boys, school, and music. But then her dad died and that stopped. She doesn't care about her relationship with her mum and sister. She doesn't care that she's pushed away most of her friends. She doesn't care that she lost her virginity to her friend's brother in the backseat of his car. She doesn't care that she uses men, or what people think about her friends with benefits agreement with Kai, a guy she met in a bar. Tegan doesn't care about the man that received her father's heart. And she doesn't want to care about that man's son. She doesn't want to care about anything ever again.
