Room 32: Conjuring Jim Morrison By D.R. Haney

In the summer of 2013, author and journalist D.R. Haney ('Banned for Life'; 'Subversia') rented Room 32 at the Alta Cienega Motel in West Hollywood, California, a room which for three years served as the hermetic home of the late Jim Morrison, lead singer of The Doors. Haney's idea: rent the room, get some booze, throw a party—and hire a psychic medium to try and conjure Morrison's spirit.

'Room 32' is a masterfully written, deeply fascinating, and wonderfully strange account of what happened next and why, all these years later, Morrison's legend still looms large.
