Saving the African-American from Cradle to Grave: Instructions to the Black Man in the 21st century (A Textbook for Success) By Riccardo V. Haynes

My idea to write this book centers on the desire to educate my own people. Here, I am referring to the black African American man in particular. Although I may not be the most well-known Negro in America, I do feel that I have acquired certain knowledge that if widely dispensed and utilized will definitely have a positive impact on my brothers out there in America trying to survive. The information I intend to relay originates from my experiences in the world, my formal education, the Bible and religious studies, as well as my knowledge acquired in being a member of the most often discussed but most often misunderstood Secret Society of all time. I am referring here to the Masonic Fraternity (Prince Hall Affiliation), of which I have been a member for well over twenty years. Brothers, the time is now. Our time has finally come to advance and be recognized for who we really are and for the greatness of our legacy. Not since the year 2012 have we really been free to become everything that we once were and are destined to be in the future. I will explain the significance of this particular year and why it was so important to us later. In any event, know that you have the power. Use it to better yourself, your family, and mankind.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Riccardo V. Haynes was born in 1964 on a U.S. Military Installation in Madrid, Spain and thus became an American Citizen. I was educated within the Catholic & Jesuit School System located in Cleveland, Ohio and received a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology from Cleveland State University in 1988. I then served my country for six (6) years in the Army National Guard of Ohio and was Honorable Discharged in 1989 as a Sergeant (E-5). In March of 1991, I was initiated into Prince Hall Freemasonry and was raised as a Master Mason in 1995. I am a third (3rd)-generation Freemason. Simultaneously, in 1995, I received a Master's Degree in Biblical Counseling from Freelandia Bible College & Seminary located in the State of Missouri. In 1999, I went on to earn a Juris Doctorate Degree (JD) in Law from Newport University (Newport Beach, California), although I never sat for the California Bar Exam. I have over twenty (20) years of public, law-enforcement experience within the State of Ohio as both a policeman and Deputy Sheriff. In June, 2013, I went back to school to earn an LL.M. (Master of Laws) Degree from Thomas Jefferson School of Law in San Diego, California. Currently, I am employed at the top-rated, educational institution known as Case Western Reserve University, in Cleveland, Ohio. Also I just recently completed my Master's of Business Administration (MBA) degree. I have been married to my wife, Joanne, for seventeen (17) years and we have a fourteen (14) year old son named, Ryan. My final conquest is to earn a Doctorate degree in Ministry if almighty God wills it to be so. I am currently enrolled in this program. Also, on May of 2014, in the great City of Cincinnati, Ohio, I was elevated and received Freemasonry's highest honor and also its greatest level of responsibility, the 33rd Degree. SO MOTE IT BE...
