(Sex & Mayhem Book 8) By K.A. Merikan

--- When life gives you blood, make mayhem. ---

Grim. Assassin. Leather-clad sex god. Has the most unusual taste in men.
Misha. Mutilated. Afraid. Will never trust again.

Grim is a bloodthirsty killer, and he owns it. Gay in a world of outlaw bikers, he firmly stands his ground if anyone dares to cross him. He takes pleasure in showing homophobes their place and fucking his way through a life of carnage.

But there is a part of him always aching for something he cannot get. When by chance he saves the most perfect guy he's ever met, he is not about to let him go. Even if it means he needs to smother his broken bird.

When a masked, bloodstained man rescues Misha from captivity, he doesn't know if he should thank the menacing stranger or stab him and run. Grim is not the kind of man who takes no for an answer, and Misha might now be in more danger than when he was trapped as a sex slave.

Misha cannot deny though that Grim is as alluring as he is frightening, and once Misha realizes what power his body holds over Grim, he understands that taming the beast of a man could be within his reach.

But any possibility of a future together is like a house of cards when Zero, the sadistic crime lord who destroyed Misha's life, sets out to get him back.

Will the ruthless biker assassin at Misha's side be enough to conquer the monsters from his past?

POSSIBLE SPOILERS:

Themes: Outlaw motorcycle club, organized crime, assassin, chase, disability (amputee), devotee, revenge, redemption, kidnapping, road trip, fear, hurt/comfort, past abuse

Editorial Review

Review

- "I've never read a MC like Grim before (and let's face it, these two writers have had some of the best and OTT MCs ever!) and I loved him. To say he's obsessively weird, doesn't cut it, he's so much more than that. (...) What is 100% beyond doubt though, is that he knows he loves Misha and to him, that is all that matters, he will love and protect him and do whatever it takes to keep him safe. See? He's full of layers that seem impossible to unravel but Misha does, slowly but unravel he does." - Three Books Over the Rainbow
- "Grim is definitely the creepiest and most complex character I've ever read. (...) Not for the faint of heart. Not if you want a fluffy and sweet romance story. And definitely not if you don't believe that love can be found in the most horrible places, by the most horrible people." - Ele, Gay book Reviews
- "Watching these two lonely broken souls come together and slowly become whole was really beautiful. I really love how much these two guys really loved each other. It certainly wasn't pretty, it was gritty, violent and crude, but they worked. I loved seeing Misha come out of shell and be the man he was destined to be. I loved that he wasn't afraid to put Grim in his place when it was needed. These men really brought out the best in one another and completed each other." - Jen, Lustful Literature
- "While I found Grim fascinating, Misha is the one who tugged at my heartstrings. He's broken, and when I say broken, I mean completely broken. What was done to him would destroy most people... it was utterly horrifying, and I actually had trouble reading that section. (Again, this is where I point out you'd better know what you're getting into with this book, because it isn't all chocolate covered roses.)
- Grim wants someone to love. Misha wants somebody to look past his physical ailments. These two have a long road in front of them dealing with their separate issues and with each other." - Decadent Delights
- "Misha is this really amazing, brave, if a little bit wounded soul that I couldn't have picked a better guy for him. His past and former life until Grim was despicable, it was hell, and it was harsh and horrendous. Despite that, once he has escaped with the help of Grim, you can see him grow. You can see his battle with trying to figure out who he is when he doesn't have to be the guy all this creeps and kidnappers and rapists want him to be. He's sarcastic, and angry, and sweet, and full of life. He's also scared of life, but with the help of Grim he blossoms." - The Voice of IS
