Lectures on Preaching, Delivered Before the Divinity School of Yale College in January and February, 1877 (Classic Reprint) By Phillips Brooks

This is part of the debt which I owe to those who have honored me with their invitation. It is interesting to ones self to examine and recognize and arrange the ideas which have been slowly taking shape within him during the busy years of work. I shall be very glad if you too are interested, as I try to recount them to you, and very thankful if you find in them any help or inspiration. The personal character of this lectureship is very eddent. It is always to be filled by preachers in active work, who are to come and speak to you of preaching. It is not aH omiletical Professorship. It is each mans own Kfe in the ministry of wliich he is to teU.
